Accommodation

The Royal Over-Seas League is very well situated and there are many affordable hotels in the vicinity. There are many choices of accommodation available in the city, ranging from those travelling on a budget to those wishing to stay in some of London's most exclusive hotels. Hotels closer the graduation will be more expensive than those further away due to the graduation being in Mayfair. However if you need a hotel there are many others suitable for all budgets.

- If travelling on a budget rooms are usually available in most university halls for as little as £20 a night and can be booked online.
- Victoria is a good area to be looking at for central accommodation with prices starting with Easyhotels from £39.00 a room per night.
- St. James'S Hotel & Club is situated next door to The Royal Over-Seas League and rooms start from £201 per night.
